LEST WE FORGET – 110 YEARS SINCE THE OUTBREAK OF THE WAR TO END ALL WARS

By Minister for Veterans' Affairs – Guy Barnett

This year, 2024, marks 110 years since the outbreak of war with Germany on 4 August 1914.

The Great War was known as the 'war to end all wars' where military casualties were estimated at 8 million and civilian casualties estimated at 6.5 million. Counted among those were more than 60,000 Australians who were killed.

The Australian Prime Minister Joseph Cook pledged full support to Great Britain immediately after the outbreak of the First World War. In Tasmania the German merchant ship the Oberhausen which was collecting timber from Port Huon in southern Tasmania was impounded and its 45 crew taken prisoner of war. The town of Bismarck in southern Tasmania had its name quickly changed to Collinsvale (after Tasmania's first Governor Colonel David Collins) and Tasmanians took up the call for God, King and country with more than 1,000 men enlisting and after some training, embarking on 20 October 1914 on ships the Geelong and Katuna from Hobart to Albany Western Australia. They then joined with 21,500 Australian troops 8,500 New Zealand troops and 12,000 horses where they set sail to Egypt and then to Gallipoli. Australia also soon established the Australian Naval and Military Expeditionary Force and after a small battle with the Germans and some locals took over, in September 1914, German-occupied Papua New Guinea (where the Prime Minister Anthony Albanese is visiting this Anzac Day to commemorate the service and sacrifice of the Australian forces who defended Papua-New Guinea at Kokoda against the Japanese in World War Two.)

The outbreak of war would set off a chain of events that would remake Tasmania and Australia and indeed the world.

It has been 109 years since that first ANZAC Day on 25 April 1915 when Australian and New Zealand troops began their war effort at Gallipoli Turkey. It was ultimately a 10-month failed campaign where our troops withdrew after the loss of 8,709 lives. However, the ANZAC Spirit was forged at Gallipoli, Turkey and has been evident ever since. The attributes that make Australia great such as courage, mateship, service, and sacrifice were demonstrated time and again. In fact, Tasmanian Evandale man Harry Murray who served at both Gallipoli and in France and Belgium on the Western front became the most highly decorated soldier for all of the Commonwealth in World War I. Harry was known as 'Mad Harry' for his incredible bravery support for his men and willingness to go where others would not. Harry enlisted again in World War Two and died on 7 January 1966. Harry demonstrated those attributes and is a symbol of the ANZAC spirit for all of us today. More than 15,000 Tasmanians served in World War I with an estimated 3,000 killed.

Deb Blundell part of Swansea Drum Corp. Russ the horse, Sharon and Dale Henderson, Janine Bishton and Horrie the war dog- all members of the Northern Tasmanian Light Horse Troop Inc.

ANZAC day is very well attended and is now possibly the most spiritual day of the year for most Australians. We are often reminded at ANZAC services of Jesus' words 'greater love has no one than this, than he who lay down his life for his friend'.

Our nation stops at both dawn and at 11 am on ANZAC day to commemorate all those who have fought and died for the peace & freedoms that we enjoy today. It is not a time to celebrate as our freedom has been won at great cost including the pain distress and suffering of those who have returned and their families. It is a time to honour and say thank you to our 17,500 Tasmanian veterans and all those who have served and continue to serve.

Lest we forget.

ARTICLES OF INTERESTANOTHER SUCCESSFUL CLEAN UP!

The Friends of Rocky Hills group gathered on Sunday 21st April 2024 to again volunteer their time to participate in the Annual Clean Up Day at coastal reserve locations between Cressy Beach and the Buxton River.

A dedicated team of 8 people collected over 10 bags of general rubbish, recyclable items and a few odd pieces including a camping chair, backpack, and a radio.

The collection was tallied, documented and submitted to Clean Up Australia head office in Sydney to be collated as part of a national report.

Thank you to Glamorgan Spring Bay Council for assisting with the catering on the day and arranging to take our haul of rubbish to the tip.

Our next group event will be a Tree Planting activity at the end of July:) Please contact me if you would like to join the group!

SWANSEA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, COMMUNITY & TOURISM CAR, BIKE & TRUCK SHOW

On Easter Saturday the “Chamber” held what it hopes to be an annual Car, Bike & Truck Show at the Swansea Recreation Reserve.

About 50 cars, 30 bikes and 11 trucks were prepared for display, together with another 50-60 bikes being around the oval outskirts.

The event was to raise money for May Shaw Swansea. An amount of over $900 was raised and after some expenses, a cheque for $500 was present to May Shaw on 18th April.

Unfortunately, the newsletter photographer was unable to attend the event, which led to only a handful of photos being available for publication. We thank Celia Ralston & Sandy Shaw for their kind supply of their photos.

We would like to thank the volunteers who helped to put the show on and those who helped in the setup and takedown on the day.

The event was sponsored by the following:
Sponsors: Knight Frank Real Estate Swansea; Swansea Plant Hire: Todd Smith; Bendigo Bank Swansea & Bichen; East Coast Supermarkets: IGA Swansea; Alimemto and Swansea Pharmacy.

May Shaw Face Book Page 18th April :
“Yesterday, representatives from the Chamber of Commerce - Swansea - Jo Raspin and Kelsey Walker visited May Shaw Swansea and presented CEO, Fiona and Director of Facilities, Usha with a $500 cheque, following their recent Fundraising Event, the Swansea Car and Bike Show on the 30th of March.

We are incredibly grateful for this donation which will undoubtedly go a long way in supporting our future initiatives and programs. As a not-for-profit organisation, we are dedicated to supporting our residents and clients in any way we can, and donations such as these, allow us to give that little bit extra.

When we receive community donations like this, it just reiterates that we are on the right track to fostering strong connections through-out our community, which we are very proud of.

Thank you once again, not only to Swansea Chamber of Commerce, Community, and Tourism for choosing May Shaw to receive these funds, but the entire community for supporting this event. Acts of kindness and collaborations like these, truly make a difference in the lives of those we serve.”
